

Figure 4. Map showing the backscatter intensity derived from the multibeam data. The backscatter intensity is presented here as an 8-bit gray-scale image with high-backscatter values shown as white and light gray and low-backscatter values shown as dark gray and black.